Loma Negra - Relevant Event

Buenos Aires, May 24, 2018 – Loma Negra C.I.A.S.A. (NYSE: LOMA; BYMA: LOMA),

Loma Negra believes that, regardless of the recent market movements, the Company's competitive advantages are still strong and with solid fundamentals.

According to Sergio Faifman, CEO of the Company: "in connection with recent news articles, there is no alleged procedure, investigation, action or similar proceeding against the Company by the Argentine Antitrust National Commission (Comisión Nacional de Defensa de la Competencia) for any alleged cartelization of the cement industry. Our pricing policy is only related to the Company's commercial strategy, regardless of the price actions taken by the rest of the companies in the cement industry".

Moreover, neither the Company nor Loma Negra's Board of Directors has received any communication, nor is aware that a case has been initiated for alleged violations of federal securities laws in the United States. In this regard, the Company believes that it complies with applicable local and international laws.

Loma Negra does not allow under any circumstance any violation of its Code of Business Conduct and its ethical and integrity values, as well as its antitrust and compliance policies.

About Loma Negra

Founded in 1926, Loma Negra is the leading cement company in Argentina, producing and distributing cement, masonry cement, aggregates, concrete and lime, products primarily used in private and public construction. Loma Negra is a vertically-integrated cement and concrete company, with nationwide operations, supported by vast limestone reserves, strategically located plants, top-of-mind brands and established distribution channels. The Company also owns a 51% equity stake in an integrated cement production plant in Paraguay, which is one of two leading cement producers in that country. Loma Negra is listed both on BYMA and on NYSE in the U.S., where it trades under the symbol "LOMA". One ADS represents five (5) common shares.
